The Golden Rule: Cut into strips to give out to groups.

Not one of you truly believes until you wish for others what you wish for yourself.

In everything, do to others as you would have them do to you; for this is the law of the prophets.

This is the sum of duty: do not do to others what would cause pain if done to you.

What is hateful to you, do not do to your neighbor. This is the whole Torah; all the rest is commentary.

Treat not others in ways that you yourself would find hurtful.

One word which sums up the basis of all good conduct...loving kindness. Do not do to other what you do not want done to yourself.
